

A star in the making

Written by Vanchai G.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:59

Vanchai Golten is the newest addition to our team for the 2011 race season, and is truly a star in the making. Young Vanchai is already 21 years old, but has never before raced cars or go-karts for that matter yet he possesses a Natural talent to an extent that very few people have.

A star in the making

Written by Vanchai G.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:59

Vanchai did a 3 day training course with the Singha Racing School which gave him a lot of good basic race skills and surprised everybody with his speed after only 3 days on the track. Vanchai and his family then decided that they wanted a second opinion about his potential, and a test day with The Pizza Company racing Team was arranged at Bira.

Vanchai was scary fast to the extent that the team felt he was trying to drive over his abilities, and he also as a result of this and being under a bit of pressure and coming straight from

A star in the making

Written by Vanchai G.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:59

University and maybe not eating and drinking enough parallel parked the car nicely into the tire wall coming out of S2 at Bira, but amazingly the damage was very limited and again his natural talent somehow saved him from a bigger crash and he was able to continue the test session.

Vanchai improved steadily and started to listen well to instructions and at the end of the day he had set his personal best lap which was 1.5 seconds faster than before, so a decision was made for him to race 1 season with our race team and use that as a learning year where we could spend the year on teaching him to become a better driver.

A star in the making

Written by Vanchai G.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:59

A week before the first race of the season we did 1 test day with Vanchai at Kaeng Kracharn Circuit, and again he proved to be very fast setting lap times that would see him in top 6-8 in the up-coming race.

Vanchai spent the practice sessions leading up to the race in learning to brake later and differently, which would come to be a great help for him in the races.

A star in the making

Written by Vanchai G.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:59

Placeholder text for a description or caption, appearing as a dense block of black characters.

A star in the making

Written by Vanchai G.

Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:52 - Last Updated Wednesday, 18 May 2011 06:59

Vanchai finished his 68th race with a 21st place on track Sunday 22nd April, as he took his first victory in the 2011 Thailand Championship. He finished 1st on track Sunday 22nd April, as he took his first victory in the 2011 Thailand Championship.